Crochet is one of those hobbies that most certainly will never die out. And with good reason. There are few crafts that are so elaborate, so beautiful, and so intricate as the craft of crochet.

This is because crochet can only ever be done by hand. No matter how hard we try, there's not a single machine on the planet that has the ability to crochet, making this one of the most ideal crafts you can make. Every single piece is an original, because every single piece is done by hand.

So you dive on into all kinds of projects, each one looking so beautiful you simply can't help yourself. You want something that you can wear to the lake next weekend, and you want something that you can snuggle up in when you are at home.

You want something you can toss over the couch and know it looks great, and you want a nice table cover, perfect for entertaining. No matter what you can think of, you know that you have to have it crocheted, because you have to have it one of a kind and every bit as unique as you are.

And that is where this book comes in. In it, you are going to find that finishing touch you need to take your craft from something you wish you had to something you can flaunt everywhere you go. There's no need to wonder how you are going to finish off that shawl, how you are going to finish off that throw, or what you are going to put on that pillow.
