Jane Eyre Charlotte Bronte

Jane Eyre is often considered ahead of its time due to its portrayal of the development of a thinking and passionate young woman who is both individualistic, desiring for a full life, while also highly moral. Jane evolves from her beginnings as a poor and plain woman without captivating charm to her mature stage as a compassionate and confident whole woman. Although its popularity as a classic transcends gender, it is especially held as a favorite novel among many women for its indepth exploration of a strong female character's feelings.
