Momo is spoilt by his doting parents and granny, who forget to teach him any manners. Momo pushes other children around, snatches their things, hits them and won't wait his turn. No-one else likes him very much and he realises why when he meets the Totobrats. Can they help each other to change their nasty ways? This is the ideal book for teaching all young children good manners. It is especially useful as a way to discuss and encourage positive behaviours in children who have special educational needs, such as Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder.
