Join our intrepid private eye Sam Marlowe in his erotic adventures as he descends into the shady underbelly of 1957 Los Angeles in this 81,000+ word novel cut in the classic noir fashion of the dime store detective series from the 30s-60s. In his debut appearance private detective Sam Marlowe's investigation unearths a plot of blackmail, deceit, murder, and of course crossdressing! We find Sam hired to follow the young Hubert Prescott, scion of a wealthy pharmaceutical magnate and discover what he has been getting up to in the treacherous streets of midnight Los Angeles. What Sam discovers will not only shock him to his core but change him and his love life forever. This exceptionally lustful tale will keep you turning the pages as you search find out not only whodunit but who done what with whom! If you love erotic tales that center around the themes of crossdressing, transvestism, and noir literature like that of Raymond Chandler or Dashiell Hammett, coupled with amorous adventures then this is the book for you. Author Dwindle Gee's debut effort will keep you humming throughout the night with a book that will both titillate and entertain you and leave you wanting more, waiting for the next installment of this private detective series.
