The New Agenda is the prequel to The City Center. Ava's journey continues as she searches for Chief Morray inside the mainframe network. She needs to stop him before he causes any further damage to civilization. Hitting his archive files, Ava goes back to Morray's teen years before he became a corrupt and tyrannical leader. Society was collapsing but young, idealistic William Morray had hoped his father's acclaimed Repatterning Program—a precursor to the brilliant New Agenda—could get things back on track. They said the Repatterning was for the greater good, but like most advertising it was a lie. The horrifying plan entailed eradicating all cities, homes and people outside of the Elite citizenship. William joins an underground alliance to put an end to the Repatterning and save what's left of civilization. If he can't stop his father in time there won't be anyone left to save. This thrilling young adult sci-fi series follows Ava Rhodes as she fights against Chief Morray to save her people from his maniacal new agenda to control all human life.
