Wild West Mikado or The Code of the West (Complete Piano Vocal Score) Adapted from Gilbert & Sullivan's The Mikado Wes Finlay

WILD WEST MIKADO or The Code of the West by Wes Finlay and Don Weller, is a complete adaptation of Gilbert & Sullivan's THE MIKADO. In order to keep Gilbert's story, plot and humor as close to the original as possible, the premise was borrowed from Akira Kurosawa's SEVEN SAMURAI. A prologue was written to transform the power of an Emperor (The Mikado) to the Patriarch of the most feared and respected gang (Family Clan) in the west and author of The Code Of The West, . . F. Jake McCado. Set in a Western Saloon, Gilbert's libretto was paraphrased in an attempt to capture the spirit, timing and pace of Gilbert's original. Sullivan's music is arranged in a country/western style while retaining all of the vocal parts and chord progressions as Sullivan composed them. The Piano Vocal Score contains all dialogue and stage directions. "If they are the stuff of which classics are made, the Savoy operas will standup. I think that it is much better for works of art to be re-interpreted in all manner of ways than for them to be preserved in the aspic of a carefully maintained routine." . . . Sir Tyrone Guthrie
