Thirty-Three Years to Life Steven Robert Christlieb

The book traces the experiences of the author over thirty-three years of employment in the field of Corrections. The evolution of prison advancement and changes are discussed through the years, as well as individual inmate cases, both male and female. The author was employed at multiple institutions as a correctional officer, vocational instructor, classroom teacher, personnel worker, sentence specialist, and classification officer. Explanations of gaintime, release programs, custody levels, inmate manipulation, and inmate and employee behavior are explored at length. The book concludes with a dictionary, of the slang, of the nation-wide inmate culture. An invaluable training tool for those seeking employment in a law enforcement field.
