FRACTAL DREAMS. PHOTOGRAPHS FROM TWO DECADES.

Fractal Dreams presents the first twenty year retrospective of Loranc's images from both California and Europe, highlighting the unique lyricism and powerful drama of his bold photographic vision. Roman Loranc introduces a singular vision to the West Coast photographic tradition as he expands its territory. Finding uncommon beauty in the fragile wetlands and ancient oaks of the Central Valley, as well as its rural backroads, hills and farms, Loranc's exceptional prints makes these subjects as memorable as famous views of Yosemite. Born in Eastern Europe in 1956 and arriving in California in 1984, Loranc has injected a wealth of cultural tradition and emotion into his beautifully hand crafted photographs. In recent years, Loranc has returned to explore the surviving countryside of his Polish homeland, including the atmospheric interiors of its churches and sacred spaces. The essay by David Stroud explores the important contribution Loranc has made to the tradition of West Coast landscape photography as well as the biographical and artistic background that makes him a unique and original voice in the history of American photography. Trade Edition with Dust Jacket , shrink wrapped, signed by Roman Loranc - Brand New direct from publisher.
