Melting the Ice in the Heart of Man - Sirmiq Aattuq Uummatinnit - is a teaching from the people of Greenland - Kalaallit-Nunaat - an ancient culture that has never known war. It summons us to bridge the distance from our minds to our hearts through strength and gentleness, bringing about personal transformation and global healing.

Along with images of Greenland, the Ice Wisdom 2011 Wall Calendar chronicles a Sacred Fire Ceremony held there that honored the spiritual significance of climate change. Ashes from Sacred Fires around the world - from Asia to the Americas to the heart of Africa - provided the foundation of the fire. Similar fires burned around the globe on the same day in support of this ceremony.

The ceremony was conducted by Angaangaq, an Elder, Great Shaman - Angakkorsuaq - and carrier of the Qilaut (Wind Drum). From a family of traditional healers and wisdom keepers in Greenland, Angaangaq knows firsthand the dramatic environmental changes that are taking place on this planet; he believes that we can use these changes as opportunities for personal and societal growth.

The interior pages of this calendar are printed on 100% recycled, 50% post-consumer paper, processed chlorine free and printed with soy based inks.
