Kinedim Benjamin Karl

What does it mean to be human? In our distant and lonely future, when the extracted talk instantly between the stars yet take thousands of years to reach them, two tortured outcasts dare to challenge the central truth of their time. Greigh is an old man, a recluse driven mad by despair. Kinedim is a curious child with a will all her own. As society tries to destroy them, can they find peace for themselves, and in doing so might they challenge our ideas of what it means to exist, forever?
