With her past confronting her head on, a game of tug of war is being played with her heart and Orchid is faced with having to make the most difficult choice of her young life. Will she choose to revisit her past or move forward with her plans to marry Khalil? But all is not as it seems. As more drama unfolds and alliances are questioned, deep dark secrets from the past are revealed once again threatening her family and any chance she has at happiness. Once again life has thrown Orchid a curve ball, but will she be able to again garner the strength needed to fight for her happiness and those she loves?
