Football and romance come together in this sweet romance...

Haven Haggarty is woefully inept when it comes to men and matters of the heart. Successful in her job as an image consultant with an up-and-coming company, she wishes she could enjoy as much triumph in her dating efforts. When she falls hard for a handsome wide receiver, Haven realizes she needs to tackle her fears or miss the opportunity to experience once-in-a-lifetime love.

Brody Jackson lives and breathes football. As a wide receiver for a popular arena team, he's determined to make it back to the NFL. Cocky and confident, he doesn't have the time or energy to be bothered with a serious relationship until he's blindsided by a sweet, naive girl who breaks through his defenses. He has to decide if he'll let go of his dreams or fumble his chance to win Haven's heart.

Excerpt:

On the verge of devouring her with his growing longing, Brody gave himself a mental lecture to calm down and take things slow. He didn't want to scare Haven half to death the first time he really kissed her.

"Any more questions?" Haven smiled at Brody as he worked his hands through to the ends of her hair then wrapped a curl around one long finger.

The appearance of her dimples was his undoing. Grabbing her waist, he slid Haven closer then pressed his lips to each indentation in her cheeks before turning his passionate gaze to hers.

"No more questions. I think we should seal this deal with a kiss," Brody said, watching Haven's eyes drift shut.

Brody knew kissing her would be amazing. What he hadn't anticipated was the explosion of fiery heat in every nerve ending in his body. Her lips moving beneath his set him aflame with no hope of extinguishing the blaze.

In the next few seconds, Brody realized two important details. The first was that Haven touched places in his heart and soul he never even knew existed. The second was that he'd never, in his lifetime, get enough of her kisses.
