They Hunger Scott Nicholson

Guaranteed to grab you by the throat, Scott Nicholson's heart-stopping new novel reaches blood-chilling heights in They Hunger.

In the rugged wilderness of the Appalachian Mountains, the treacherous Unegama River holds more than its share of mortal dangers. But something deadlier than any force of nature is about to be awakened. Something both unnatural and immortal. Driven from their ancient hunting grounds, they have dwelt in their cave for hundreds of years. . .hiding, waiting--and hungering. Now, a group of whitewater rafters has made the mistake of passing through their hunting grounds, and for these awakened creatures of the night, their thirst for blood is about to be unleashed.

And they are going to feed. . .

Praise for the Novels of Scott Nicholson

"The enjoyment of it is akin to reading Stephen King's It and The Talisman."

--Asheville Citizen-Times

"Combines the atmospheric uneasiness of such classic fear novels as The House on Haunted Hill and The House Next Door."--Cemetery Dance
