"Where do I go from here?"

For many writers, finishing a manuscript provides only short-lived satisfaction. The excitement of breaking the tape at your writing's finish line quickly gives way to the realization that you're lost in a wilderness of options. The view in every direction looks the same. Your next steps could lead you to either a safe publishing oasis that will sustain you, or a mirage where friendly bandits rob you of your hope, your energy, and your money.

"The Compass" provides a straightforward path to your desired destination, whatever that goal may be. Whether you have a children's picture book, a novel, a nonfiction book about your favorite subject, or a collection of poetry or autobiographical stories; a personal project for the eyes of only friends and loved ones or mainstream audiences, "The Compass" will give you the confidence to reach for whatever goals and audiences you identify. Following "The Compass," you can publish a book of superior quality and viability in the ever-changing book-selling marketplace.
