Hermano Pablo's vision left its mark on Latin America. Driven with desire to put the Gospel message on radio and TV in the Spanish-speaking world, Paul Finkenbinder (popularly known as Hermano Pablo) worked tirelessly to see his unprecedented dream fulfilled. With few resources except for an unfaltering faith in God, Hermano Pablo doggedly pursued the vision even when others, including his own family and co-workers, wondered if the cost was worth it all. Today, as Hermano Pablo and his wife Linda look back on nearly 70 years in ministry they clearly see God's handiwork that made Hermano Pablo through his broadcasts one of the most influential Christian leaders in Latin America in the 20th century.
