There's a tale in Rosedale that homeless Old Lady Bell comes from wealth. But then no one pays much attention to her and her pudgy Terrier who roam the streets of the small, southern town. That is until Animal Control threatens to take the dog from Bell prompting soft hearted attorneys Sarah Wright and John Rivera to come to her aid. Is Bell really homeless, or does she live in the abandoned, decayed mansion on the outskirts of town? Sarah is compelled to find out what drove the former socialite into obscurity and turns to family friend Judge Joe Conner for answers. However, Judge Conner is oddly reluctant to reveal details about Bell or his own mysterious past. What is the Judge withholding and why? What starts as an animal rescue turns into a mystery that Sarah and John are determined to unravel. Fate steps in and a life threatening event leads them to a shocking discovery and an ending that surprises everyone. This Christmas romance will warm your heart and restore your faith in eternal love, hope, and miracles.
