When Belle Calhoun steps off the stage into Tombstone, Arizona, in the spring of 1885, she never expected to arrive just in time to witness a hanging, to get into a tussle with a saloon owner, to have to borrow a dress from a saloon girl, or to attend a stranger's funeral, all within her first hour in town. When her circumstances suddenly find her without her intended mail order groom, Belle has a hard time staying out of trouble when his brother threatens to raffle her off to the highest bidder. Dalton, who has vowed to protect her, can't do that when he gets himself into some trouble with the new deputy in town.
