History's Timeline is a world history for all the family, containing 260 colorful illustrations. The basis of the book is a detailed Chronology which takes the reader from the last Ice Age and Neanderthal Man to Watergate. The Chronology is supplemented by background information which recounts some of the historical landmarks that have helped to shape the human story. At the end are reference tables of presidents, rulers, battles and so on. A comprehensive index makes the vast store of information readily accessible.
