Love was the furthest thing from Jennifer Hanna's mind as she dreamt of life away from Maruba Island. Taunted for her gangly frame as a child Jenny knew rejection, abuse and poverty, no-one on the remote tropical island in the Bahamas would have ever described the fiery girl with awkward looks as an attractive girl. Nor would they think of her as being inclined to success. Now back to make amends with her ailing father, Jenny encounters the island's wealthiest bachelor who pledges his undying love for her. Will Jenny allow past hurts to keep her from experiencing a love the islanders considered taboo or will she embrace a love that seems to have no end in sight?
