Sports doctor and physical therapist Dr. Zoey Howard did not want the spoiled, and egotistical Yazair Bryant, star running back for the Philadelphia Stallions as her patient. One thing she could not stand was egotistical football players. Because of his severe knee injury she was called in to get him back in shape and ready for the upcoming new season. On their first meeting she was not surprised he was hosting a party ten o'clock in the morning. It didn't matter to her, she was here to do her job and she was going to do it regardless of what Mr. Yazair Bryant thought. However, Yazair Bryant knew the minute that the wisecracking and bossy doctor barged into his life that it would be forever changed. One thing he did not expect was her invading this player's heart.
