Into My Life Unexpected, Learning to Love Again is the story in narrative and verse of one man's journey of rediscovery. Beginning at age 62, after years of failed relationships and unhappiness in his personal and professional life, the author relocated to a place he calls "Paradise". It was in that place, free to find the heart and emotion so long repressed, that his life began. This is the beginning of that journey, a journey which continues today... About the Author SL Kaufman is a graduate of the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania and the New York University School of Law. Before relocating to "Paradise". he spent 40 years in the legal, commercial and financial communities in and around New York City. Although he has written his entire life, this is Mr. Kaufman's first published work.
