Arizona (Best Hikes with Children) Lawrence Letham

The only year-round guide to family hiking in Arizona. Includes national parks, state parks, and public lands
Introduces children to cultural and environmental etiquette

This guide takes families beyond Arizona's traditional tourist spots to conifer forests, painted deserts, and everything in between. In the diverse terrain, children will discover petrified forests, Native American ruins, and even Old West ghost towns. Complete trail descriptions with information on points of interest, flora and fauna, and campsite locations are complemented by easy-to-read maps.
