New Testament and Christian Apocrypha Francois Bovon

In this volume, world renowned biblical scholar Francois Bovon provides twenty-two studies on topics in New Testament and early Christianity. The studies cover three areas: Luke Acts, New Testament theology, and apocryphal and patristic literature. Originally published in hardcover by Mohr Siebeck in the Wissenschaftliche Untersuchungen zum Neuen Testament series, this collection includes translations of ten studies originally available only in French. This affordable North American paperback edition makes Bovon's specialized research in early Christianity accessible to scholars and graduate students.
