Personal Injury Settlement Agreements Line by Line Chris Faiella

Personal Injury Settlements Line by Line is a comprehensive examination of the components included in settlement of a personal injury case. It is written by a practicing attorney with experience in drafting and litigating personal injury cases. This book explains the use and reasoning behind the various clauses in a personal injury settlement agreement. It also explores the rationale for using different clauses, and explores the use of different types of agreements and common considerations that lawyers involved in personal injury cases will face.

The book discusses full and partial satisfaction, complete releases, specific and limited releases, liens, taxation issues in personal injury cases, structured settlements, consideration of Medicare's interest, Medicare set aside trusts, third party liens and interests, settlements for minors/incompetents, confidentiality agreements, preservation of claims, use of partial settlement agreements, and covenants not to sue.

The author offers advice on these various topics and offers strategies and suggestions for using settlement agreements to further the overall outcome for the client. Personal Injury Settlements Line by Line is a valuable resource for anyone practicing in the field of personal injury law who wants to negotiate or draft a settlement agreement, as well as for those seeking a deeper understanding of the issues that should be addressed in any personal injury settlement agreement.

A CD-ROM is included, which provides searchable PDF and Word versions of the book with a sample agreement.
