A Polish Christmas With A Magical Christmas Tree. This is a story when I was growing in Poland, and I was about thirteen years old, and how I learned about Christmas Eve Dinner, and we share the wafer, from the oldest to the youngest. After dinner we went to Midnight Mass. Then the war came and Germans arrived at my house and took me to a farm in Germany, and after the war I came to America with my daughter and husband in 1951. And now I keep the Polish tradition of Christmas Eve even in 2004.
