The Military Balance 2006 (Military Balance)

The Military Balance 2006 (Military Balance)

Published annually by the International Institute for Strategic Studies, The Military Balance is an assessment of the military capabilities and defence economics of 169 countries world-wide.

The book is a region-by-region analysis of the major military and economic trends and developments affecting security policy and the trade in weapons and other military equipment.

Key features of The Military Balance include:

- * Comprehensive tables: key data on weapons and defence economics, such as comparisons of international defence expenditure and military manpower
- * Analysis: essays covering significant military and economic developments, such as the "European Rapid Reaction Force"
- * Wallchart: detailed world map that shows current areas of armed conflict, with explanatory tables.

Designed to be an easy-to-read reference, this key title informs readers in as brief a fashion as possible on the widest variety of military topics through a mix of hard data and considered and informed analysis.
