Poems of a Depressed Child is a collection of poetry written just for you. The collection includes poems about rape, mental and physical abuse, cutting, anger, rage, and more. The author felt very misunderstood at times by peers and didn't talk much. She wrote her feelings down over the years and it became a dream to get published. And now, you are holding her finished book. While reading this book, the author hopes that you get a strong sense that you are not alone in the world of pain. She wants you to stand up for what you believe in. Remember what Mother Teresa said, "God wont give you anything you can't handle." God Bless!
